What will IKEA do to correct the problem?

IKEA will examine the product and decide, at its sole discretion, if it is covered under this guarantee. If considered covered, IKEA, through its own service operations, will then, at its sole discretion, either repair the defective product or replace it with the same or a comparable product. If it is covered by this guarantee, IKEA will pay the costs of repairs, spare parts, labour and travel for repair staff that IKEA incur, provided that the product is accessible for repair without special expenditure. This does not apply to any repair work not authorised by IKEA. Replaced parts become the property of IKEA. If the item is no longer sold by IKEA, IKEA will provide an appropriate replacement. It is IKEA that determines, at its sole discretion, what constitutes an appropriate replacement.

What is not covered under this guarantee?

This guarantee does not apply to products that have been stored, assembled or installed incorrectly, used inappropriately, abused, misused, altered or cleaned using the wrong cleaning methods or cleaning products.

This guarantee does not cover normal wear and tear, cuts or scratches, or damage caused by impacts or accidents. This guarantee does not apply if the product has been placed outdoors or in a humid environment. This guarantee does not cover consequential or incidental damage.

Accessories that do not affect the basic function of the product are not included in the guarantee.

Our seating furniture is put to the test

At IKEA we test all our sofas, armchairs, sofa-beds and footstools to be sure that they're durable. And we're especially tough on the ones that have long guarantees. For example, we push one 100 kg weight onto the seat 50,000 times – and one 30 kg weight onto the back just as many times. We do all this to be sure that the frames retain their stability and that the cushions retain their resilience and comfort. The guarantees we provide are proof that our seating furniture can withstand being used often and for a long time – and thereby provide an assurance for you as a customer.
